Mouton Cadet Saint-Émilion

MOUTON CADET

Reserve Saint Emilion 2022

Vineyard: The terroir of Saint-Emilion is divided into two distinct zones: the clay-limestone soil of the côtes gives round and fruity Merlots, while the sandy, flinty gravel of the sable allows the Cabernets to reach optimum maturity.

Bouquet: The nose opens on spice notes, especially Malabar pepper and cinnamon, followed with airing by ripe red and black fruit aromas, especially wild strawberry, bilberry and blackberry.

Palate: Forward yet supple tannins leads into a stylish, fruit-filled mid-palate on blackberry and blackcurrant flavours, while mixed vanilla and mocha notes appear on the finish.

Faustino Gran Reserva Rioja 2014

Vinification: Fermentation temperature 28 C. Minimum 24 months in French and American oak barrels. Refined in bottle up to 60 months in total.

Appearance: Red colour evolving to garnet. Medium-high colour intensity

Bouquet: Complex, very rich in nuances. Sweet notes of fruit such as morello cherry, faint hints of oak, toffee, spices (cinnamon, pepper), blond tobacco. Aromas of pastry.

Palate: Round, homogeneous. Pleasant on the palate. Reminiscences of spicy notes. Hints of dried fruits. At the end there is a subtle and pleasant

Port

75ml

Taylor’s Tawny Port

Portugal / Aromas of vanilla and evolved dried fruits. Fresh flavours of red fruits combine with the complexity of wood ageing.
